Gen. Maytorena Fears For Hermosillo

Sonora Governor Hastens to Defend His State Capital From Carranza.

VILLA TRAINING AVIATION CORPS

Recognition of Both Villa and Carranza as De Facto Rulers Possible.

OUGLAS, Aria, Feb. 24.—Gen. Jann Cahral, sent to Sonors some time and to take commund of the millinry forces of that state, resigned roday, saying that he could not support Gen. Francisco Villa as the supreme Mexican chief.

Several days ago Cabral had a conference with governor Jose Maytorens, supposed to be a Villa adherent, at Nogales, Scoors, as a result of which it was announced that both chiefs had reached an agreement in the support of Villa.

Mayto-con Usuality according to the meditor according to messages received by Carrancistus here. Gen. Juan Cabral, late commander of these troops, sent to Sonora by Gen. Villa, has definitely broken with Maytorena and has gone to San Francisco.

Sorious dissensions in the Maytorena ranks are also reported in Carranza messages. According to these, a mutiny occupred Tuesday at a point 24 miles south from Nogales. Yaqui troops, who were at the camp, had not been paid in some weeks and refused to obey orders. A detachment of Villa troops wan sent from Nogales and, upon their arrival, a brisk shirmish began. In the course of the fight, is of the mutineers were killed. The remainder escaped. Besides the Villa-Maytorena and Carranta factions there are now five well organized independent bands operating in Sonora, according to Americans arriving hore from that state. Conditions from the horder to the gulf are reported to be worse than at any other period in the four years of revolution.

Training Aviators.

Torreon has become the training ground for Villa's aero corps, according to namengers arriving from that city. Two aeroplanes are being tested there and a third machine which left Juner Saturday, will soon be added to the corps. A German Mexican named List is in charge of the training school and more than a dozen young officers have volunteared for service. The planes, according to the arrivals from the south, will not be used until the Tampico campaign is well under way. The passengers report that the Tampico-Monterey railroad line has been cut.

Recognition of Both Leaders has been cut. Recognition of Both Leaders Recognition of both Villa and Car reams as the heads of the de facto govframears controlling their respective terripories was confidently predicted by agents of the two factions Wednesday. According to the claims of bath, the recognition will come through the conferences arranged for between Duval West with Villa, and Charles A. Douglas with Carranas. The recognition will automatically do away with the "special representative" contingent and will result in accredited representatives being sent to Aguascalientes and Veracrus, in the opinion of the legal advisors of both factions.

West, accompanied by George C. Carrothers, another special representative, has some to Torreon with high officials of the Villa government. GenVilla was still at Guadalaira Tuesday and wired horder representatives from that city.

SENATE REFUSES TO SIT AT NIGHT

Woman's Suffrage Resolution Fails to Carry; Its Friends Despondent.

USTIN, Texas, Feb. 24.-Senator Claud Hudspeth, of El Paso, introduced a bill today in the senits carrying an appropriation of $10,-000 for an increase of the ranger force of the state.

Senator Hudspeth said, in connection with this bill, that it has the endorsement of the governor and the adjutant general and it is proposed, in the event the measure passes finally, to increase the ranger force 10 men. The governor is also expected to send up a special measure to the legislature on this measure. The additional rangers are to pretect the border from Mexican depredations.

Senator Anoth introduced a resolution providing for the holding of night sessions, commencing March 1, but the senate refused to consider it by a vote of 2 to 15. It was then buried in the committee on rules.

Representatives Decherd and Bell foday introduced in the house, by request,
